Direttore: Giorgio Arosio

Year of foundation: 1966

Origins and development: Since 1966 , the Salesian Institute of Sant'Ambrogio, due to the significant increase of students, has been divided into two autonomous educational communities: the first one is the "Sant'Ambrogio", for middle school and classical and scientific high schools, while the second one is the "Don Bosco" for the Vocational Training Centre. Currently the VTC is associated with the CNOS/FAP body: adapting to the territory requests, it implements the training project, it ensures the constant updating of the educational paths, of the methods and the facilities.

Sectors and activities today: it promotes Initial and Continuing Vocational Training activities.

It mainly operates in Mechanical, Electrical and Graphic sector.
