Direttore: Pietro Bianchi

Year of foundation: 1992

Origins and development: In 1992 began the educational and training activities of the "Professional Training Centre" of the "Manfredini", recognized and funded by the Veneto Region, it gradually gave a decisive contribution to the visibility and the social and economic development of the territory, including the borders of the provinces of Padua, Rovigo, Verona and Vicenza. In 1992-1993 the first courses in the electrical and information technology fields began. In 1995 the courses in the graphic field were added, with the development of fields previously launched: the electronic and industrial automation departments and the information technology field. In 1997, after the strong persistence of the categorical associations involved, both local and provincial, the mechanical field was opened, to which were soon added the departments of automation CNC and light electro-welded carpentry. In 2004 it was decided to expand Electronic field with the introduction of thermo-hydraulic skills. In September 2008 the Catering sector was inaugurated in order to create a professional role able to manage and promote activities dedicated to the development of the territory, the environment and food tradition.

Sectors and activities today: it promotes Initial and Continuing Vocational Training activities.

It mainly operates in Mechanical, Graphic, Tourist and Electrical/Electronic sector.
