San Donà di Piave

Direttore: Enrico Gaetan

Year of foundation: 1957

Origins and development: The activity of the "Vocational Education Centre of Basso Piave" was launched on October 16, 1957, with the following normal courses of first training: mechanical repairers, carpenters, electricians, technicians, industrial chemists. In 1978 it became the Vocational Training Centre Association CNOS-FAP Don Bosco (National Centre of Salesian Institutions/Vocational Training and Updating). With a keen eye to the world of work, to its evolutions, over the years the association has always proposed a rich educational offer plan. It all started with courses such as: Programmers and Numerical Control Maintenance Technicians, Electro-Mechanical Maintenance Technicians and Electrical Automation Maintenance Technicians. In the academic year 2006/07 the new Motor Industry was launched. In November 2008, thanks to the project TechPro2 with Fiat Auto, the new motoring laboratory was inaugurated. In 2009 the new automation laboratory and the CAD / CAM computer laboratory were inaugurated.

Sectors and activities today: it promotes Initial Vocational Training activities. It mainly operates in Mechanical, Automotive and Electrical sector.
