Novara

Direttore: Antonino Gentile

History:

The birth of Salesian work is linked to the figure of Fr. John Baptist Ferrando, who convinced the major rector of the time to create a community also in Novara.

On December 5, 1893 the first salesian activity was inaugurated.

Novara VET centre was established as a branch of the San Benigno Canavese VET centre.

Sectors and activities:

Vocational training

- Vocational apprenticeship courses
- Courses of the initial, continuing and individual demand training of the hotel and tourism sector
- Continuing and individual demand training courses of the information technology sector
